Dear Dr. Burleigh;

We are trying, still, to locate the grave of Gamaliel Taylor. We have more information than when we asked help about Benjamin Taylor.

From Gamaliel's and his wife's applications for a U.S. Revolutionary War pension we know these things;

Gamaliel b. Huntington, Long Island 1758
m. Anna Losee "winter" 1782 in Dutchess County, N.Y.
d. Fredericksburg, Canada 1840

was a resident of Fredericksburg, County of Lennox in 1833. Was a wagonmaker,

His wife Anna b. "Swago", Dutchess Co. 1760 was still alive in 1850, residing in Camden, Upper Canada

Children

Abraham
Sally
William
Polly

Benjamin b. 1794 or 1795

Other people who testified for them were

William Griffis- Fredericksburg
Stephen Griffis- Adolphustown
Nellie Outwater- "Midland District"

She swore before Belyut Outwater, Justice of Peace

Jacob Rorabaugh, Justice of Peace

} all in Dutchess Co. N.Y.

It is probable that either there was no stone for the Taylors or it has long since been lost. If so, is there anyway we can locate the graves? We would like to put a Rev. War marker on them.

Because of dates and information from other sources we believe these marriages to be of Gamaliel's children.

Abraham m. Abigail Bell later moving west, eventually to Mich.

Sally (Sarah) m. Alphaeus Cadman 1810 Fredericksburg

Polly (Mary) m. Paul Wright 1806 Marysburgh

Benjamin m. Sarah Rasback c 1820 Gananoque. He drowned in 1830- widow remarried Daniel Maxon, family moved to Jefferson Co. N.Y. 1837-1838

We would appreciate any suggestions you would have for trying to locate Gamaliel's and/or Anna's grave.

Sincerely yours

Josephine C. Fredenburg

Mrs. Josephine E. Fredenburg,

Dear Madam:

At long last I am attempting to answer your letter of 10th ult., re Taylors. As you likely know, I replied to Mrs. Dorothy Paynters' letter on the same subject, unfortunately supplying practically nothing.

I must say that I know very little about the Gananoque area. I am, however, quite familiar with this region, my hobby being a study of our early families. In this latter connection I furnished information on the Taylors to a Mrs. L. Mortimer Lewis, R. R. 1, Box 284, Galesburg, Michigan. This was in 1957. I suggest that you write to her, as she might still be alive. She was inquiring about Abraham Losee Taylor, born in Dutchess Co., 6 May, 1782, who married Abigail Bell, born in Fredericksburgh 3 Aug., 1792, daughter of Duncan Bell, a Loyalist. This marriage was dated about 1810. Their first child, James Hough, was baptized 14 Apr., 1811. This child was great-grandfather of Mrs. Lewis, nee Amy Brown.

Since writing to Mrs. Paynter, I was looking into the marriage Register of John Ham, J. P., and I found this marriage:

1837, 28 April. Gamaliel Taylor & Mary Welsh married by publishment in the presence of Jacob Cadman and Agnes Boyd, both of Fredericksburgh.

The McDowall Marriage Register has these:

1806, 13 Aug. Paul Wright & Mary Taylor, both of Marysburgh Township.

1810, 16 April. Abraham Taylor & Abigail Bell, both of Fredericksburgh.

It is very possible that these people belong to your family. Note these two Taylors married to Losee girls. Could they have been brothers? I refer to this

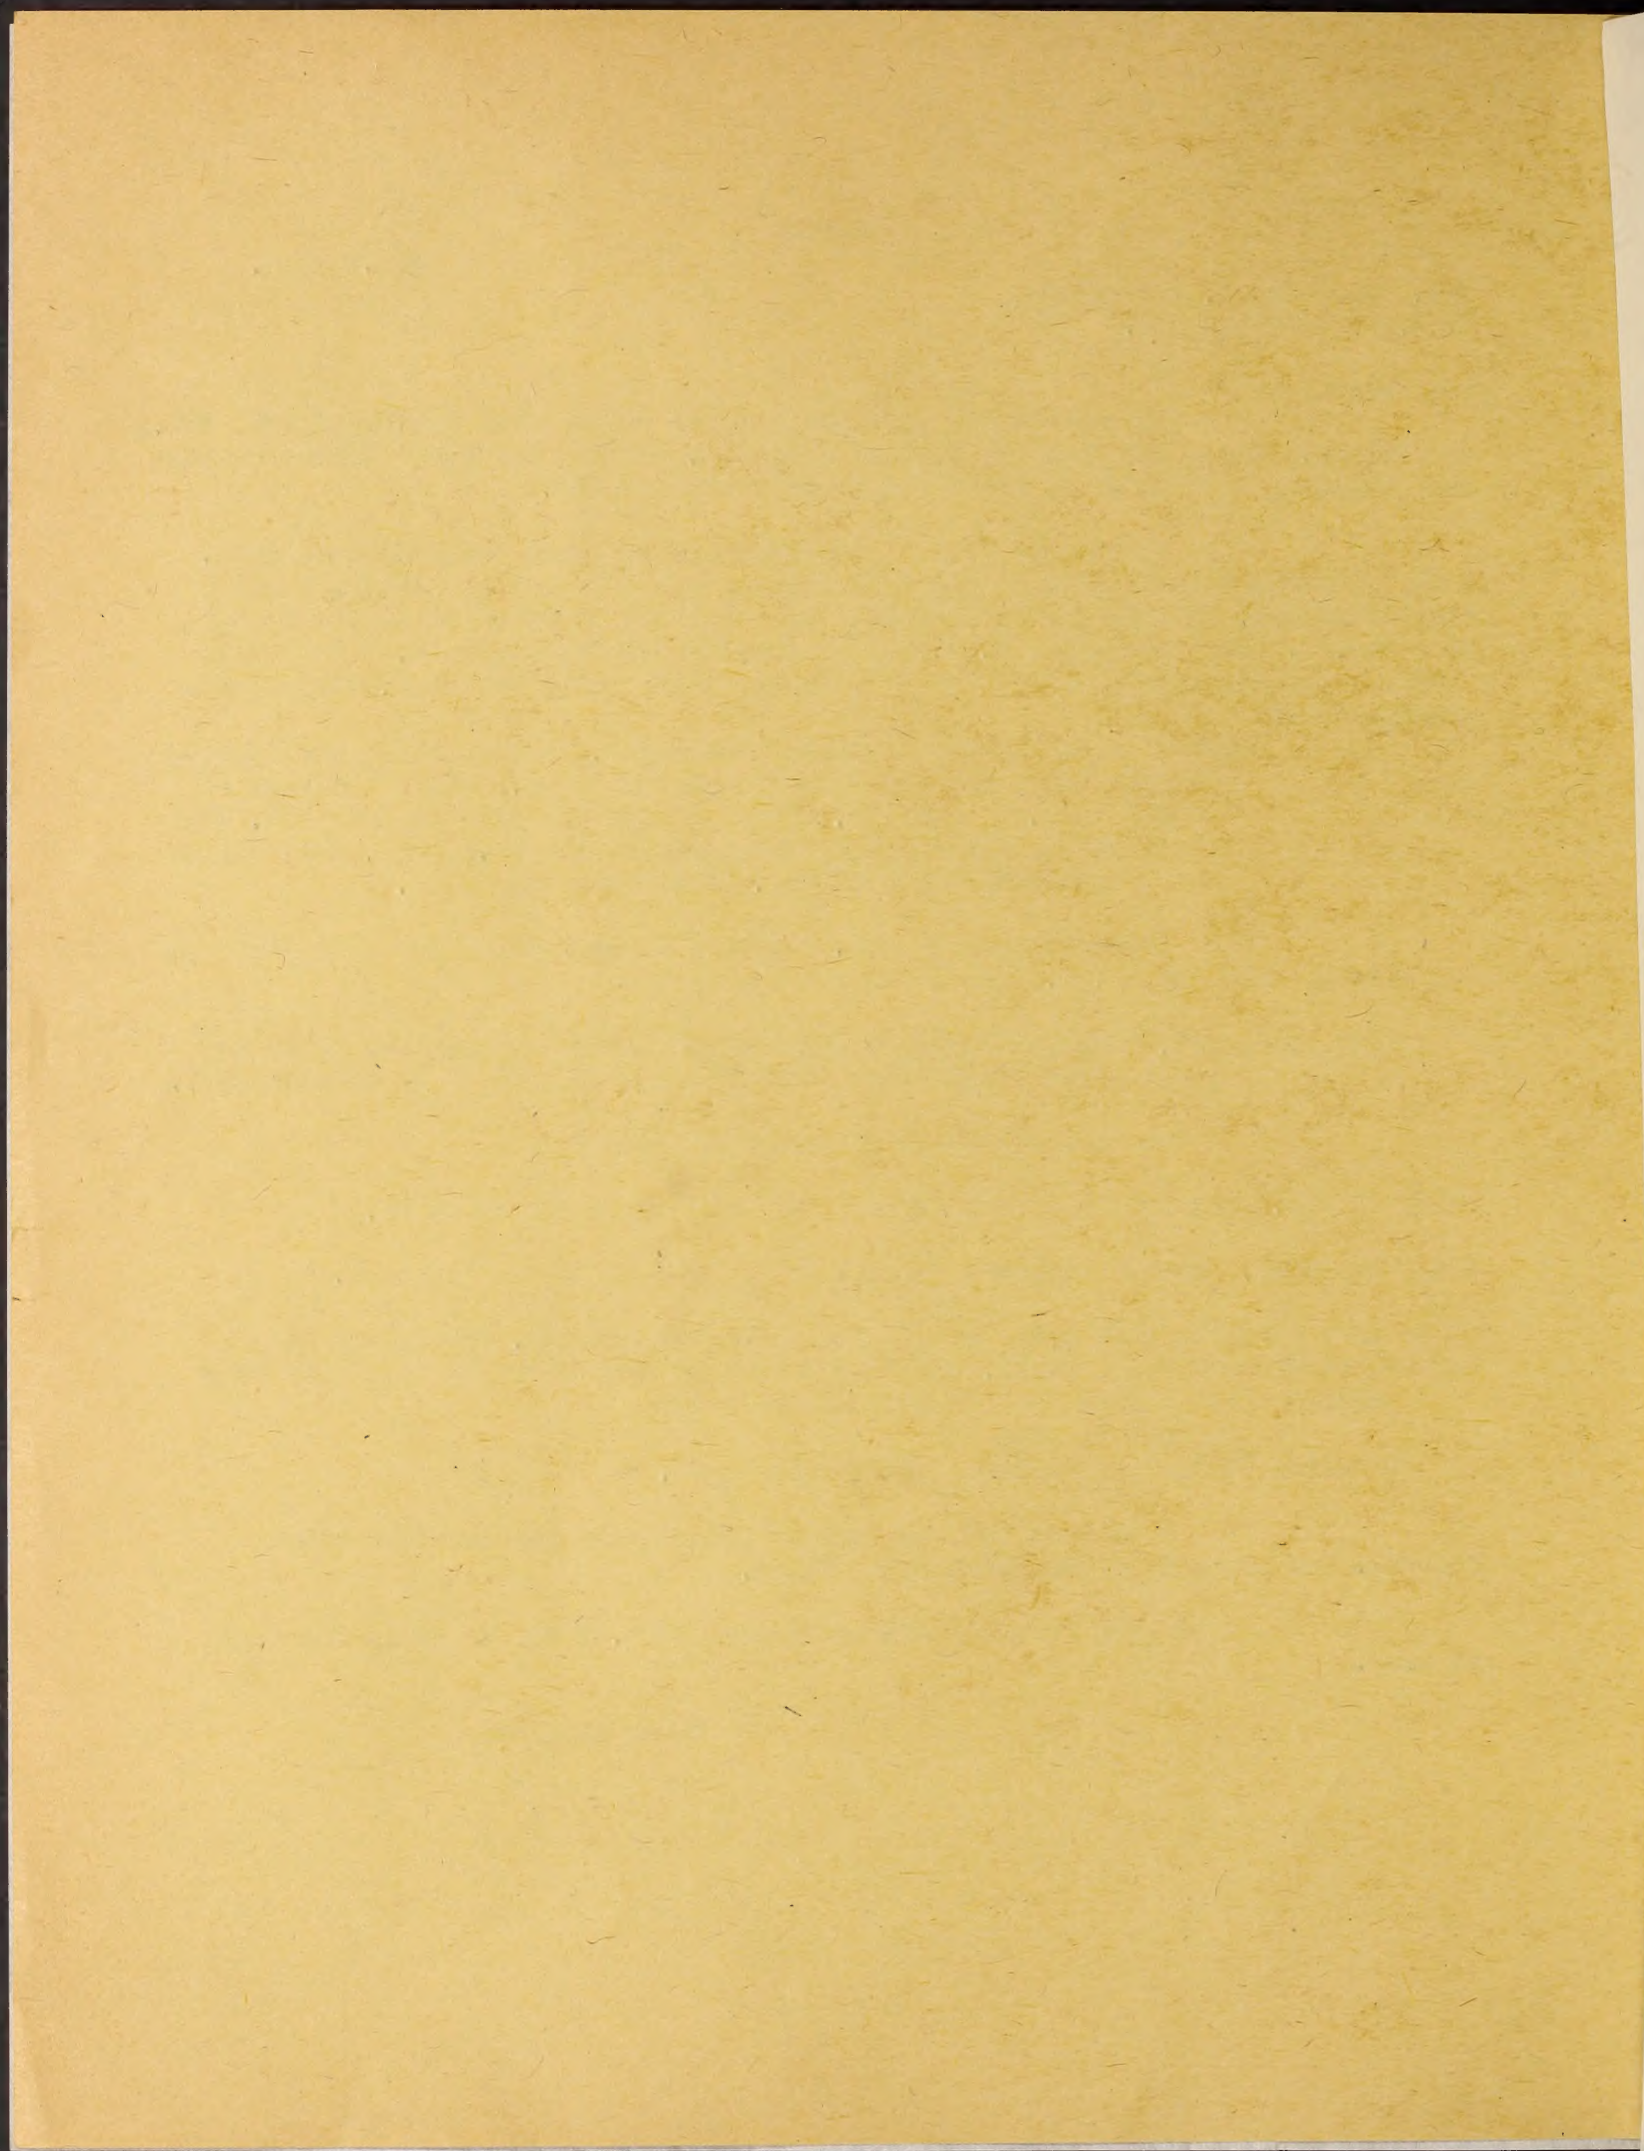

Abraham Losee Taylor who married Abigail Bell, as well as your

Gamaliel Taylor who married, 1782, Anna Losee.

I am sure that you should investigate the American Losee records. You might find important leads there.

I wish that I could be of more help. I may do so in the days to come.

Yours sincerely,

R D 1, Clayton, N.Y.

Dear Dr. Burleigh;

As you are also a member of the Central New York Genealogical Society I'm writing to ask if you could tell me where I could find some needed information.

We are trying to prove a certain Benjamin Taylor was the son of a specific Gamiliel Taylor and the father of a James Taylor. We have these facts. According to affidavits made by Mr and Mrs. Gamiliel Taylor for the purpose of obtaining Rev. War pensions from the United States, Gamiliel was born in Dutchess County, New York, married Anna Losee in 1782, had a family, moved to Canada about 1800 (could have been anywhere between 1799 and 1810). They settled in the area of the Bay of Quinte. Gamiliel died in 1840 and was buried in Fredericksburg, Upper Canada. In 1845 Mrs. Taylor gave her address as Camden, Lennox and Addington, Upper Canada. She was then 79 years old. A friend who testified as to the marriage had lived in Dutchess County and moved to Adolphus Town in Canada about the same time as the Taylors moved to Canada.

According to stories in the family, Benjamin, the son, married a Sarah Rosbeck (Rosbeck) whose father was a doctor in the Gananoque area. Benjamin, after 2 or 3 children, one of which was James, was drowned in 1830. His widow married a Daniel Maxon and in 1838 the family moved to the United States locating in the Town of Orleans, Jefferson County. From then on we can follow the family through Census records, etc. To date, we have not been able to verify Benjamin's marriage, death or anything about his wife's family. The only evidence that he was the son of Gamiliel and the father of James is found in information given by James when he was 65 years old or older. Other information given by him at the same time has not been accurate, tho the substance has been fairly true.

Benjamin was supposed to have fought in the War of 1812, but we don't know on which side. There is a Benjamin Taylor listed on early tax records on the American side of the St. Lawrence River, so it is possible he was back and forth across the river. Daniel Maxon is listed in the 1825 census of Jefferson County. Gamiliel came to Jeff. Co. in the 1830's to make application for his pension. Both facts indicating a great deal of river crossing.

James and his descendants belonged to the Episcopal Church, but because of the mention of Adolphus Town Meetings (which we believe to be Quaker) in Gamiliel's records, it is possible that the Episcopal Church affiliation came thru the Rosbeck family.

no help!

Dear Mr. Burleigh,

I am one of the women who interrupted your lunch two weeks ago.

I am trying to find the grandmother of Gamaliel Taylor, (my great, great, great grandfather) and his son Benjamin B.
Taylor.

We know that Gamaliel married a Miss Tacy in 1775 and settled near Bangor, Maine,
Me. where Benjamin was born April 18, 1779. They removed to Canada in 1818 and settled near the Bay of Quinte, twenty miles above Kingston. In 1819 Benjamin married Sarah Bostack and had two children
James A. born Oct. 3, 1824 and Benjamin born Sept. 5, 1827. Benjamin B. Taylor (the father, and second grand I am looking for) was drowned in the Ganarogue River in 1830 and his wife came to the State, where she remained.

I have looked for two years for these two graves. I was told there was a flat-topped stone bearing the name Taylor in your Anglican cemetery. We searched that cemetery thoroughly and could not find it, however there are two such stones lying face down ~~which were~~ too heavy for us to lift. Do you know if one of these could be the grave I am looking for? I have searched all the cemeteries and records in and around Janesville for the other grave (Benjamin) and have about come to the conclusion that the body was never retrieved from the river.
I talked with the Mr. Taylor in your town and he also knew of the Taylor grave and said it was not a relative of his.

I would greatly appreciate any information you can give me and will come back again if you can help me get that there is such a Taylor grave.

Very sincerely, George C. Sawyer

Would you have any suggestions as to where we might look or write for information about the Rasbeck Family and/or Benjamin Taylor and his connection with it? We would like anything to prove a Benjamin Taylor lived in Upper Canada, married and had a son James born about 1825.

Thank you for any suggestions you may have? I'm enclosing cost of postage for a reply as no Canadian stamps are available here.

Sincerely yours,

A. R. Fredenburg (Mrs. A. R.)
